

WE ARE HIRING A HAEMATOLOGY CONSULTANT DOCTOR MATER PRIVATE IN DUBLIN

Mater Private in Dublin requires a haematology consultant doctor for January-February 2019.

Description:

This post is part of a small team of private Consultants which has a contract to provide a clinical and laboratory Haematology service to both Mater Private Hospital (MPH) and Mater Misericordiae University Hospital (MMUH), which is one of the largest teaching hospitals in Ireland.

The group is managed by a highly respected Professor who holds a full time Consultant post in MMUH. He is committed to developing Consultant's careers in Ireland and has assisted previous post-holders to achieving permanent Consultant posts in the public hospital system.

Below is an outline of a working week.

MPH Lab cover is 1 in 3. MPH clinical cover is 1 in 3. MMUH Lab and consults is 1 in 6. MMUH in patient cover is 1 in 6. Clinics are every week. On call is 1 in 3 MPH and 1 in 6 MMUH. MPH usually has 5-10 in patients including Myeloma lymphoma MDS. More complex treatments are given in the MMUH unit. On call in MMUH is supported by an on call Registrar. On call in MPH is generally quiet as the patients are less complex.

When on clinical cover in MPH during the week we do rounds early 07.30hrs. After that the Registrar will call the consultant about in patients consults or day cases. This frees up the morning and afternoon for other activities.

Overall the weeks when one is off clinical cover are quieter.

There are two Registrars, two specialist nurses and three secretaries in the MPH
